Safety's not out business, it's our passion

Often corporations see their people as the weakest link in the safety chain...

Paralysing their people with processes that take away the unique characteristic that make us all human...

SAFEmap offers a powerful and unique training program in safety leadership. We call this DeepSafe.

A leadership course with safety as the focus.

Leadership is about breaking new ground, moving boundaries and taking risk. Safety on the other hand is about following the tried and trusted pathways, eliminating risks...

In this program we have developed a concept that enables safety and leadership to be aligned... we call this DeepSafe and DeepSafe Leadership.

Imagine a leadership team that could win the 'hearts and minds' of their colleagues... a leadership team of true pioneers that lead their organisation in to danger and through danger... Doing it safe... and doing it right.

DeepSafe and DeepSafe Leadership has been transforming leaders around the world, at leading organisations such as Boeing, BHPBilliton, Southern Co, Edison, Umicore, Goldcorp and many more – over 10 000 leaders attended.

Leadership has just taken the next step...
